

Figure 2. Graphs showing least-squares regression model used to estimate (A) total suspended-sediment concentrations, and (B) fine suspended-sediment concentration from turbidity at U.S. Geological Survey water-quality monitoring station, Elwha River at Diversion, near Port Angeles (12046260).